Student Sign Out

If your child needs to leave campus throughout the day, the office must be made aware beforehand via phone or email from parent/guardian to the front desk.

250-746-6168

quamichanfrontdesksecretary@sd79.bc.ca

Without contact from a parent/guardian, student cannot be released.

Student Fee Statements

Expect statements of outstanding student fees and athletics team fees to come home this week. They can be paid through School Cash Online or in-office by way of cash, debit, credit or cheque. Students who are in Grade 8 and have a $100 Rock Climbing fee, please disregard. If you have already paid, reimbursements have been issued to credit cards and you should see that on your statement within the week. Thank you!

Democracy & Me Art Contest

Draw, design, and share your creative expression through this contest for K-12 students in B.C.: “Democracy & Me Art Contest”!

The contest period closes on Wednesday, January 31, 2024.

The Democracy & Me Art Contest invites students to reflect on the importance of community, civic engagement, and the rights and responsibilities of citizenship and democracy. In developing creative artistic responses to the Contest questions, contestants are asked to reflect on how their creative expression offers a unique medium to express one’s identity, culture, and connection to community.

The final judging panel will be composed of the Honourable Janet Austin, OBC, Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia and the Honourable Raj Chouhan, Speaker of the Legislative Assembly.
